What happens after you have completed the HBM&NLP Trainers Training?

This fascinating development process offers you the opportunity to realise permanent change, at individual, team and organisation levels. In preparing for this course, myHBMcenter was inspired by Tad James, David Shephard and Robert Smith, three famous Master Trainers of NLP, and by Eduard Baas, founder of the HBM philosophy. The feedback from these four masters has been integrated in this innovative HBM & NLP Trainers Training.

You will be at ease in front of any group. Your audience will remember you as speaker or trainer, not only because they think the information provision was excellent, but also because they appreciate your enthusiastic performance. You will act as role model for the group and enjoy your conscious and unconscious direction of your audience. "You are as much you as you can be"
